PRODUCT DETAILS

Level up your coffee game by introducing a professional-grade burr grinder to your morning routine. Our Cuisinart Burr Mill gently crushes fresh beans to an even consistency right before you brew, preserving the delicate aromas and oils that make each cup of coffee extraordinary. Don’t just drink coffee—savour it with the perfect grind that unlocks the full flavour potential of your beans.

With 18 settings, customising your grind to suit both your brewing method and personal taste has never been easier. For those who love a strong cold brew or enjoy using a cafetière, a coarse grind is ideal. If you prefer filter coffee machines or pour-over methods, go for a medium grind. And for the espresso lovers, a fine grind is the way to go. The versatility of this burr grinder ensures you’re always in control of the taste and texture of your coffee.

The freshness of your beans is also a top priority. With a fully sealed 225g hopper, your beans stay perfectly fresh until you're ready to grind. Plus, the 4-18 cup selector with AutoStop ensures you grind just the right amount of beans every time, reducing waste and making your morning routine more efficient.
