

Marshall Emberton III Portable Bluetooth Speaker, Cream

254200

Not all speakers are created equal. Some can provide the soundtrack to your life while taking on dust, dirt, and rain. Emberton III does exactly that and more. It’s not for display, it’s meant to join the party, wherever the party ends up. You can chuck it in a bag, throw it in the back seat of your car, take it on a cross-country ride, or hit the beach, completely stress free. Emberton III is ready for the fast lane. While you’re busy living life to the fullest, you’ll experience absolute 360° sound. True Stereophonic is a unique form of multi-directional sound from Marshall – where every spot is a sweet spot. No matter where you’re standing, the music will sound vibrant, balanced and loud. Just like it should. With 32+ hours of portable playtime, and battery preservation features built for almost endless listening sessions, you can keep the music playing on repeat.
