PRODUCT DETAILS

Experience the freedom of true wireless sound. Designed to make technology a part of your personal style, Urbaneears Alby true wireless headphones come in four on-trend colors with a tactile matte finish. With customizable in-ear tips, they offer a perfect fit that blocks out noise for an immersive sound experience lasting three hours per charge. To keep up with a full day on-the go, the charging case provides four additional charges for a total of 15 hours of playtime. Easy and intuitive to use, they auto pair right out of the case and lets you navigate tracks and calls using either touch- or voice control.

Wireless and tireless

Enjoy your music all day long with up to 15 hours of total playtime. Three hours of nonstop listening per charge plus 4x additional on-the-go charges in the charging case. With the included USB-C cable, it recharges fast with minimum downtime.

Fit for all

Customize your fit with silicone in-ear tips in three sizes ensuring a comfortable fit with passive noise cancellation for an immersive sound experience.

Tap or talk

Tap or talk - stay in control without reaching for your device. Use touch controls to effortlessly navigate through tracks and calls, or tap to activate your device's voice assistant for hands-free control.

Come rain or shine

Developed to keep up with you, the water-splash resistant design (IPX4) ensures that no weather or workout will stop your beat.

Style with substance

Designed to make technology a part of your personal style statement. Urbaneears Alby comes in four on-trend colorways in a tactile matte finish.

Speak easy

Stay in touch and speak easy — a microphone on each earbud ensure crisp call quality, whether you use one or both.

Situated on a hilltop overlooking a beautiful lake landscape, Alby is a vibrant and multi-cultural suburban part of Stockholm. As the epicenter of a famous circus community and an annual music festival, Alby is a melting pot of influences cementing its position as one of Stockholm's key areas for culture and diversity.
